
Title: Armageddon

Author: GreyPawn

The Codex of Ultimate Wisdom reveals to us the necessary ingredients in casting the spell of Armageddon... The same spell that is fabled to have the capacity to annihilate the whole of the world, and remove existence from the very fabrics of the universe.

The Codex has stated that the eight sigils of the Shrines of the Virtues must be present, in addition to large amounts of blackrock which has been refined. I myself am hesitant to reiterate here the incantation for this spell, despite the impossibility of all the Sigils coming together in addition to the rarity of blackrock itself. But, for the purposes of posterity and knowledge, the incantation is as follows-
"Vas Kal An Mani
In Corp Hur Tym".
